The Honourable Bill Boyd
Minister of Energy and Resources

Dear Sir:

I have the honour of submitting the Annual Report and Financial Statements of the Oil and Gas Orphan Fund for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2009.

Respectfully submitted,

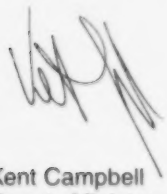
Kent Campbell
Deputy Minister
Energy and Resources

Management's Responsibility for Financial Statements

The accompanying financial statements included in the annual report of the Oil and Gas Orphan Fund for the year ended March 31, 2009, are the responsibility of management of the Ministry of Energy and Resources. Management has prepared the financial statements in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles. The financial information presented elsewhere in the annual report is consistent with that in the financial statements.

To ensure the integrity and objectivity of the financial data, management maintains a comprehensive system of internal controls including written policies and procedures, and an organizational structure that segregates duties. These measures provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded and executed in compliance with legislation and required authority, that assets are properly safeguarded, and that reliable financial records are maintained.

The financial statements have been audited by the Office of the Provincial Auditor. Its report to the Members of the Legislative Assembly, stating the scope of its examination and opinion on the financial statements, appears on page four.



Kent Campbell
Deputy Minister
Energy and Resources

Introduction

The Oil and Gas Environmental Fund was established on May 17, 1989, pursuant to Section 18.2 of The Oil and Gas Conservation Regulations, 1985 (Regulations). In June 2007, an amendment was made to The Oil and Gas Conservation Act that provided for the continuance of the existing Oil and Gas Environmental Fund as The Oil and Gas Orphan Fund.

The Oil and Gas Orphan Fund provides the government with a means to address the costs of abandoning and decommissioning orphan wells and facilities and reclaiming the sites as well as the costs of containing environmental emergencies arising from oil and gas operations.

The legislative authority for the fund and the specific provisions of the fund are found in The Oil and Gas Conservation Act and the regulations thereunder.

The fund is administered by the Saskatchewan Ministry of Energy and Resources.

Program Purpose

In 1989 Saskatchewan established The Oil and Gas Environmental Fund to provide a mechanism to abandon wells that had become orphaned and to allow the government to respond to a major spill or environmental problem where a responsible operator could not be identified. An orphan is a well (or facility) where the licensee and/or working interest participant(s) is/are insolvent or defunct. Legislative authority for the fund and specific provisions of the fund are found in The Oil and Gas Conservation Act and the regulations.

Based on the analysis by Energy and Resources officials, the potential liability presented by orphaned wells and facilities was significantly greater than the amount of money that had been available in The Oil and Gas Environmental Fund.

Currently in Saskatchewan there are potentially 700 orphaned oil and gas wells and facilities where the licensing company has ceased to exist or no longer can be located. The costs associated with proper abandonment, decommissioning and reclamation of these orphaned wells and facilities and the environmental liability associated with the sites are significant.

In order to address these problems, Energy and Resources staff were involved in extensive consultations with the oil and gas industry associations and other stakeholders over an eight-year period to develop the program and the legislation and regulations to support it. This consultative process has led to the development of a comprehensive and robust set of regulations and a program that is fully funded and fully supported by the oil and gas industry.

Under the provisions of the program, each oil and gas company operating in Saskatchewan will pay into the Oil and Gas Orphan Fund through an annual levy.

The ministry will develop an annual budget and use monies from the fund to pay for the costs associated with abandoning, decommissioning and reclaiming wells, facilities and sites that have been orphaned.

Program Activities

During the 2008-09 fiscal year, the fund had minor expenditures to report for well abandonment and reclamation of wells.

Auditor's Report

To the Members of the Legislative Assembly of Saskatchewan

I have audited the statement of financial position of the Oil and Gas Orphan Fund as at March 31, 2009 and the statement of revenues, expenses and net assets for the year then ended. The fund's management is responsible for preparing these financial statements for Treasury Board's approval. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit.

I conducted my audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that I plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In my opinion, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the fund as at March 31, 2009 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Oil and Gas Orphan Fund
Notes to the Financial Statements
March 31, 2009

1. Authority

The Oil and Gas Environmental Fund (fund) was established on May 17, 1989, pursuant to Section 18.2 of The Oil and Gas Conservation Regulations, 1985 (Regulations). The fund originated through a one-time assessment of $100 per well to a maximum of $20,000 per operator.

In June 2007, an amendment was made to The Oil and Gas Conservation Act that provided for the continuance of the existing Oil and Gas Environmental Fund as the Oil and Gas Orphan Fund (Order in Council #442/2007). The purpose of the fund is to address the issue of abandonment of wells, decommissioning of facilities, and clean-up of those wells and facilities where the obligations of the person responsible for carrying out those activities are not being met.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

These financial statements are prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles as recommended by the Public Sector Accounting Board.

3. Statement of Cash Flows

A cash flow statement has not been provided as the cash flow information is readily apparent from the financial statements.

4. Net Financial Assets

The net financial assets represent assessments raised in accordance with subsection 18.3(2) of the Regulations less well site restoration costs. The net financial assets, together with any future recoveries of well site restoration costs, are available to provide for expenditures under section 18.4 of the Regulations related to the:

a) abandonment of wells and restoration of abandoned well sites, as a result of disappearance or insolvency of the well owner or operator.

b) containment or clean-up of major environmental problems arising from oil and gas exploration, development, production or transportation operations.

5. Related Party Transactions

Included in these financial statements are transactions with the government ministries and agencies related to the fund by virtue of common control by the Government of Saskatchewan.

The fund's money is on deposit with the General Revenue Fund (GRF). The GRF calculates and pays interest on a quarterly basis using the government's 30-day borrowing rate and the fund's average daily account balance. The government's average 30-day borrowing rate in 2008-09 was 1.95% (2007-08 – 4.08%).

The fund has not been charged with any administrative costs and no provision for such costs is reflected in these statements. These costs are borne by the Ministry of Energy and Resources.

6. Fees and Other

Section 10.3 of the Regulations requires all first-time applicants for a well or upstream facility licensee to pay a one-time fee of $10,000 which is deposited into the Oil and Gas Orphan Fund.

If the applicant is not approved to receive a licence, the fee will be refunded.

7. Budget

The budget for the fund is included with the Ministry of Energy and Resources' budget submission to Treasury Board. Treasury Board approves the fund's budget annually.
